WARNING—SHORT CHANGE ARTIST ACTIVE.

Postmasters and Postal Employees:

A clever swindler is now defrauding cashiers and others in positions where money is handled. He has recently operated in Pacific Coast cities and on January 28, 1918, shortchanged an experienced clerk at the Postal Savings window of the Reno, Nevada, post office for $30. His description follows:

No. 1—Height, 5 feet 9 inches. Weight, 135 to 150 lbs. Age, 25 or 30 years. Eyes, dark, heavy dark eye brows. Hair, dark, parted on right and combed back over left. Beard, clean shaven with dark beard showing through skin. Clothes, blue serge. Pants—no coat. Pin stripe shirt. Nationality, American. Cup or hat, none.

His confederate, who preceded him to the post office and "planted" two $50 bills, receiving small bills in change for same, is described as

No. 2—Height, 5 feet 6 inches. Weight, 140 lbs. Age, 25 years. Complexion, light pale. Hair, brown; beard, smooth shaven. "hatchet faced"; Clothes, dark overcoat. Nationality, American; Cup or hat, light fedora hat.

In the December, 1917, issue of the Journal of the American Bankers Association, Page 84, appears the following article describing his methods:

Our attention has just been called to the activities of a short change artist whom we mentioned in the July, 1917, issue of the Journal Supplement, and it is apparent that this operator is again active, this time in the Post. Bankers in Connecticut, Massachusetts and bordering states should be on their guard against this operator. His method of operation is rather complicated, but very easy to distinguish: he rushes into the bank, bareheaded, pen or pencil back of his ear, shirt sleeves rolled up and apparently out of breath, giving the impression that he is employed nearby and has run in for some change. He presents a $50. bill and asks for ten dollars' worth of halves, four tens and a fifty; he then fishes another $50. bill from his vest pocket and asks to be given another $5. bill for the five tens, which he starts to shove over the counter; then without letting loose of his money, he remarks that he is sorry, and asks if it isn't too much bother; he would like to have his $10. bill back, and at the same time shoves back the five tens and the $5. bill you have just given him and receives the $10. bill in exchange. He is successful due to the fact that he uses the "RUSH ACT," and catches the paying teller off of his guard, making himself less conspicuous.

(He is described similar to No. 1, above.)

lexioned, green fedora hat creased down the middle, dark brown suit,

JAMES A. PETRAY,

Santa Rosa, Cal., June 23, 1920.

GUY R. COMPTON

under indictment here for obtaining $2,135 by false pretences.

Compton is about 30 years of age; 5 feet 10 1/2 inches tall; light brown eyes; smooth face (beard will not grow on face); red scar extending from left side of chin to right ear and back into hair on scalp (claims scar is due to mustard gas, which is dotted—looks more like birthmark); weighs about 170 lbs., but does not look so heavy; four upper front teeth false, probably bridged in; prominent scar from bullet wound on left shin, necessitating wearing an aluminum plate, which is no doubt responsible for the blackness of the skin on the lower left leg. Wears tortoise shell eyeglasses at times. Speaks dark gray with black braid around all edges. Wears Elk and Shriner's lapel buttons; doubtful if he is a member of latter order. Has a strong personality and is an excellent automobile salesman. Dresses neatly and will probably claim he was a captain in the army and discharged on account of wounds. Is a native of Texas, but has travelled quite extensively all over United States and will likely be found negotiating automobile deals.

Will appreciate it if you will cause inquiry to be made at all automobile agencies in your city and should you be successful in taking him in custody, wire and an officer with the necessary papers for his extradition will be sent for him.

Fraudulent Stock Brokers

We hold warrants for the following named men: Louis J. Sinkula, Leo Jones alias Lee, A. L. Cohen alias Corey alias Carey, Oscar Rubin alias Roth, Joseph Rothstein alias Boren, A. C. Biefeld alias Oscar and Charles Jones, who are charged with conspiracy to defraud, and operating a bucket shop, who on February 25th, 1922, absconded from this city with about $1,000,000.00 by their dishonest transactions. These seven men operated in the City of Detroit from September 1st, 1921, to February 25th, 1922, under the name of L. J. Sinkula Company. They employed a large number of salesmen, and dealt entirely with the foreign-born residents of our city. They pretended to sell stocks of various corporations, whereas, as a matter of fact, there never was a certificate delivered to any customers. They encouraged these people to invest their money with the company by at first paying them commissions or bonuses on their investments, and in that way induced a large number to invest further. Beginning with December 1st, 1921, they began to take in enormous sums, and when the investors became insistent upon getting their money or stock, these men abandoned their offices on February 25th, 1922, and have not been heard of since. These men's descriptions are as follows:

⁴⁷⁶
LOUIS J. SINKULA, age 30 years, height 5 ft. 10 in., weight 140 lbs., full face, brown hair, brown mustache, small pug nose, small scar on top of forehead, gold tooth (lower left), streak of gray hair on top of head, body rather slender, Bohemian descent.

⁴⁷⁷
LEO JONES alias LEE, age 30 years, height 5 ft. 7 in., weight 135 lbs., light complexion, light brown hair, light brown mustache, wore Alpine hat, light tweed suit, Jewish.

⁴⁷⁸
A. L. COHEN alias COREY alias CAREY, age 27 years, height 5 ft. 4 in., weight 130 lbs., heavy eyebrows, long black hair parted in center, rather pimply scarred face, draws forehead up when talking, Jewish.

⁴⁷⁹
OSCAR RUBIN alias ROTH, age 35 or 40 years, height 5 ft. 4 in., weight 160 lbs., black hair, wears nose glasses occasionally, smooth shaven but very dark beard, walks pigeon-toed, Jewish.

⁴⁸⁰
JOSEPH ROTHSTEIN alias BOREN, age 25 years, height 5 ft. 4 in., weight 140 lbs., light complexion, broad face, sandy mustache, dark hair, Jewish.

⁴⁸¹

A reward of $50.00 will be paid by the Wayne County Board of Auditors for information leading to the arrest and conviction of each of the above described men.

This man advertised in a local Cincinnati paper under head of business chances, stating that he desired to invest some money in some business. This ad was answered a few days later by one of his victims, and a short time after that SeBoyd called and the victim went into details with SeBoyd, becoming interested in the stock and bond business. Among the list of securities that the victim was interested in placing was the gold notes of the Flow Mining Company at Kermit, W. Va.

SeBoyd stated that he had two hundred shares of Standard Oil of California, one hundred Durant and one hundred Studebaker, and that he would dispose of his Standard Oil after December 10th, which was dividend day, and consider the proposition. A short time later he returned, stating that he had been ill, and during the conversation the victim stated that he became interested in some of the gold notes of the Flow Mining Company. SeBoyd stated that he would consider it, but they would have to visit the mines and make an inspection.

On December 11th SeBoyd came into victim's office and stated that he had sold his Standard Oil on December 9th, and that he would have his funds by December 15th, and that he wished to visit the mines. He visited the mines, making an inspection of same December 16th, and that evening agreed to take $18,750.00 worth of the bonds.

The following day he tendered to the President of the mines a check supposed to have been issued by Curtis Sanger of San Francisco, Calif., drawn on the First National Bank of San Francisco, stating that he would return to Cincinnati and make settlement. The President of the mines advised SeBoyd that that matter could be taken care of at Kermit. SeBoyd presented a check, the face of which is on this circular, for $23,260, the purchase amounting to $18,750, and a cashier's check was made out and given to SeBoyd for $4,510, which was issued by the Kermit State Bank at the request of D. W. Farquharson, President of the Flow Mining Company.

SeBoyd returned to Cincinnati with one of the victims and was identified at one of the Cincinnati National Banks, so that he might deposit this cashier's check, but in place of depositing same after identification, he had it cashed. Later on he returned to victim's office and stated that he would be ready to join him in business January 1st, but must first get his sister to Cincinnati to keep house for him, and requested that the bonds that he had purchased be delivered to him, but was told that he would have to wait to see if the check for $23,260 was paid. He left and that was the last seen of him.

SeBoyd seemed to be familiar with Chicago and the leading hotels there.

The warrant for this man's arrest is in the hands of Col. William Copelan, Chief of Police, Cincinnati, Ohio.

$500.00 Reward

Information received leads us to believe he may have taken, or endeavored to take passage upon a steamer or sailing vessel to Europe. He was born in Lithuania, and is believed to have relatives there. He is single, and when taking out naturalization papers in Chicago some years ago, he claimed to be a native of Russia. Before coming to Chicago he lived for several years at Hoopston, Illinois. He claims to be a member of Greater Chicago Lodge, No. 3, Loyal Order of Moose. He has been interested in the selling of stocks, bonds and real estate and may endeavor to secure employment in those capacities.

Persons, other than police officials, who recognize the photographs of Pavietas as that of a man known to them, should not arouse his suspicion by close questioning but immediately notify the nearest police officer, exhibiting this circular for his guidance.

TO POLICE AUTHORITIES:—We recommend this circular be shown to hotel, boarding and rooming house keepers, including day and night clerks, train crews, railroad and steamship ticket agents, steamship and sailing vessel crews, barbers or any other persons likely to recognize the photographs and description and handwriting hereon. Call special attention of handwriting to hotel clerks who may recognize it as of a guest who registered.

Should you arrest or suspect any person resembling the photographs and description of Pavietas, request the suspect to write some of the words shown in the handwriting specimen in this circular, and by comparison endeavor to settle identity.

Search person, baggage and room occupied by Pavietas for stolen money or securities, marking and holding same for identification.

Should you locate Pavietas and are satisfied of his identity, arrest and hold him, charging larceny and embezzlement committed at Chicago, Ill., promptly notifying us at our expense by telegraph, telephone or otherwise at nearest office listed above.

Any information imparted will be discreetly investigated and treated as strictly confidential.

DEATH RELEASES SWINDLER KORETZ FROM HIS PRISON

Panama Oil Promoter Dies In Penitentiary After One Month There Dec 1/93

STATEVILLE (Ill.), Jan. 9.—(AP) Leo Koretz, whose phantom Panama oil project took more than $2,000,000 from relatives and intimate friends, died from diabetes last night in the state penitentiary, which he entered December 8th to serve from one to ten years.

Fugitive For Year.

Death occurred more than a year after the flight of Koretz from Chicago, which was followed by the disclosure that the Bayano River oil scheme he had promoted for upwards of fifteen years was a myth. With him on his flight he took near $2,000,000 in money and securities, upward of $300,000 of which with jewelry valued at several thousands of dollars, he returned a few days later to relatives.

Welcomed Sentence.

Koretz, after his capture in Halifax, made no objection to returning to Chicago to face indictments and even expressed a hope that he would be hurried to the penitentiary. He turned over less than $100,000, all that remained of the sum he took with him.

When Koretz was found in Halifax, Nova Scotia, he was suffering from diabetes, and when he was returned to Chicago and pleaded guilty to charges of operating a confidence game, his condition had grown much worse.

Prison Meant Death.

His lawyers urged a light sentence be pronounced for this reason, and doctors who examined him said it was doubtful if he could stand prison life. Insulin treatments were resorted to in the prison hospital, but they were ineffective. He lapsed into unconsciousness early yesterday and prison officials, confident that he would be unable to survive the night, summoned his three brothers from Chicago. They were with him when he died.

His wife, however, whom he had requested be shrouded as much as possible at the time of his arrest, did not go to the prison.

CHICAGO, ILLINOIS.

CHICAGO, Nov. 24. (AP)—Leo Koretz, the "King of Swindlers" and most successful of all confidence men, will be returned here from Halifax the latter part of this week or soon thereafter, to explain the mysteries of his disappearance, with millions of dollars of prominent Chicagoans and others who had given him funds to invest in a mythical Bayano River Syndicate in Panama, which he claimed to be a $1,000,000 corporation.

This announcement was made here to-day through the office of State's Attorney Robert E. Crowe.

Missing Eleven Months.
Koretz, with $2,000,000 in cash in a handbag, disappeared eleven months ago, leaving his wife and family and other relatives and many friends with nothing more tangible than worthless receipts or certificates in his Bayano corporation, which was identified after he left here as the "Bayano bubble."

Koretz, in Halifax, had assumed the popularity which made him a favorite here and with which he cultivated many of his clients. Arriving at Brookfield, a suburb of Halifax, he purchased a home for $18,000, improved it to a value of $35,000 and named it "Pinchurst." "I'm a retired business man," he told his new friends who knew him as Lou Keyte. He took an interest in civic affairs, spent money lavishly. His suavity and generosity brought many friends to whom he explained that he was in poor health and had been advised to move to Nova Scotia.

WIFE BELIEVED IN HIM.
Mrs. Koretz for the last few months has worked in an envelope addressing firm, as a coat saleswoman and other employment, continuously expressing her belief that her husband was not guilty of any intentional wrongdoing.

At the time of Koretz' disappearance, when his friends were insisting upon some report or accounting of their funds he arranged a party at Panama, members of the party paying all expenses on Koretz' promise to reimburse them. While they were in South American territory he died, and they returned with the news that Koretz' Bayano bubble had broken and that all his investments "must have been a dream."

Money Recovery Hoped.
That Koretz will give authorities here some new leads on his hidden securities or cash, is the belief expressed in the state's attorney's office to-day. He concealed assets, which officials say he must have somewhere, will probably be recovered, they indicated, which would bring joy to thousands who have suffered financial loss.

Inclosed please find copy of warrant and picture of one Joseph Renno, who's description follows: San Fran. #28532

No. 1—Mrs. Eleanor Meir, alias Mrs. Wilson. American, age about 47, height about 5 feet and four inches, weight 130 pounds, hair light bobbed, eyes blue, complexion dark. Dressed in a dark beaded dress, tan shoes and a long brown coat somewhat faded.

No. 2—Sherman Meir, alias Wilson. American, age about 28 years, height 5 feet 5 inches, weight 135 pounds, slender build, black hair with a Chaplin mustache, dark complexion. Dressed in a dark brown suit, black hat and shoes. He claimed that he was connected with a New Orleans oil company. He was last seen at the Lankershim Hotel in Los Angeles.

The BUNCO GAME started on the water front in Long Beach where Mrs. Eleanor Meir met Zack Taylor, a man of about sixty-five years, who was grieving over family affairs. The Meir woman grasped the opportunity and learning that the old man had a few thousand dollars played the sympathy stunt which lasted several days, then she introduced the following—Sherman Meir, supposed to be her nephew; Richard Roe, who claimed to be a lumberman, and John Doe Bloomenshay, a supposed assistant broker.

They played the oil stock game with a get rich quick proposition with Mr. Taylor, which ended at the Plaza Hotel in Riverside, California, where they relieved him of three thousand dollars, in very much the same manner as the old washer game has been played.

We hold a felony warrant for each of these people and are very anxious to locate them.

JOHN H. REID

I hold a Warrant for the arrest of JOHN H. REID and RAYMOND J. PRIEST on a charge of theft, embezzlement and obtaining money under false pretences. These men promoted a fake company called The Wheat Belt Packing Company at Saskatoon, Saskatchewan, Canada, and after fleeing the victims out of over $60,000.00, disappeared.

Reid and wife disappeared from Saskatoon, Saskatchewan, Canada, on the afternoon of July 18th, 1924. Priest and family left Saskatoon, Saskatchewan, Canada, in December, 1923.

Reid is the son of Adam Reid, deceased, and is a native of Brussels, Ontario. He has a sister married to Alex. McCall, druggist, Chatham, Ontario. An older brother, William Reid, is a resident of Wingham, Ontario. A younger brother, Lewis Reid, is employed in a factory in Detroit, Michigan, U.S.A.

Priest comes from New Haven, Connecticut, U.S.A., where he was for a number of years clerk in the Yale Dining Hall. He was also associated with the promotion of the North-West Wheat Corporation, which Corporation has control of a tract of land near Edam, Saskatchewan, Canada.

I learned that after leaving Saskatoon, Saskatchewan, Canada, these men rented Room 33, Havilan Building, Miami, Florida, U.S.A., and although a large quantity of mail is awaiting them at that point, they have not as yet made their appearance there.

JOHN H. REID

Canadian; has travelled all over the world. Served in South African War. Age 46 years, looks older; height about 5 ft. 10 ins., weight about 155 lbs.; grayish brown hair, brown moustache, clipped; blue eyes, affable manner; is accompanied by his wife, whose first name is Nellie. He is of the time of the decided Irish accent. At the time of the departure from Saskatoon, Saskatchewan, Canada, Mrs. Reid was receiving medical attention for neuritis and was badly crippled as a result. They would likely have with them a Belgian police dog said to be worth $500.

RAYMOND J. PRIEST

Age about 45 years; weight about 220 lbs.; height about 6 ft. 2 ins.; smooth shaven; brown hair, blue eyes, well built; would likely be accompanied by his wife, about 32 years old, height 5 ft. 6 ins., weight about 125 lbs., blue eyes, light brown hair, slim build, nice looking; has a daughter about 9 years old and a boy about 18 months old. Mrs. Priest is fond of sports and would likely attend all ball games in the vicinity.

A reward of $500.00 is offered by the Government of the Province of Saskatchewan for the arrest and detention of John H. Reid, and a further reward of $500.00 is offered by the Government of the Province of Saskatchewan for the arrest and detention of Raymond J. Priest until proceedings can be taken for their return to Saskatchewan to answer the said charges.

If located, please arrest, hold and telegraph me.

RESTAURANT AND HOTEL MEN
WATCH FOR "BUNKO" MAN

499 e

A very clever swindling scheme is being conducted by a party giving his name as J. L. Kelso. His plan is to call on restaurants and hotels and promise them a year's supply of menus and paper napkins carrying an advertisement of KELLOGG'S CORN FLAKES upon payment of $3.00 in advance. The scheme was worked very successfully in San Jose, California and it is expected that he will try the same plan elsewhere.

This party has absolutely no connection with the KELLOGG COMPANY or any other national manufacturer, so far as is known. His method of operation in San Jose was to approach restaurant owners with an attractive proposition in which they were to use the menus which are supplied free of charge by the KELLOGG COMPANY, and receive a year's supply of napkins for $3.00.

Kelso is described as being about forty-five or fifty years of age, slender, sharp features, blue eyes, smooth face, grayish-brown hair, height about five feet nine, weight about 150#. He uses a receipt form bearing the imprint Restaurant men are advised to detain, and call the police, anyone offering this kind of proposition and seeking to collect in advance. Representatives of any reputable concern such as the KELLOGG COMPANY are never permitted to collect any money in advance.

Their method of operation is as follows: Waddell starts the operation of a matrimonial agency in some reliable building where he starts men and women corresponding with each other for the intention of marriage.

Some time ago he procured the name and address of a respectable woman of this city who had splendid means of support. In his first letter to this woman, the language of which was most refined and cultured, he struck up her friendship and was invited to call at her residence. After a courtship of three months he married this lady, who had a daughter in the same financial circumstances as her mother. After a month of married life, with Waddell he talked it over with his wife the fact of having her change all her property and money into a joint account so that if one died no relatives could interfere in the possession of the estate after death. Several days later she had this matter adjusted as heretofore stated.

Several days prior to the changing of the property and money Mr. Harry M. Arlington was introduced to the daughter of Mrs. Waddell, and also married the daughter having her do the same with her money as did Waddell with her mother.

They both made out large checks covering a large amount of their property and cash and fled the city, which amounted to several thousand dollars.

We believe that these men are wanted all over the country for like offenses. If you can identify, have any record, kindly advise.

Very truly yours,

J. B. McHenry
Chief of Detective.

MAN CONFESSES $1,000,000 THEFT

Prisoner Held On Bigamy Charge Admits Bank 1931. Embezzlement

PHILADELPHIA, April 2.—(AP)—A fugitive for whom an international search had been made for more than two years, Paul Wupper, alias Frederick Brinkman, has revealed himself to the police here as a bigamist and the embezzler of "close to $1,000,000" from the Beemer State Bank, Beemer, Neb., of which he was president.

"I got tired of being hunted," he told the authorities.

Writes Confession.

Wupper made his revelations in the municipal court while awaiting a hearing on charges of bigamy preferred by wife No. 2. While waiting in the sheriff's cell room he wrote a brief statement confessing that he was wanted in Nebraska for the wrecking of the Beemer Bank.

The prisoner told the police he had deserted wife No. 2, the former Miss Hedwig Hirsch, whom he married in this city a year ago under the name of Frederick Brinkman, because he had lost his position. He said wife No. 1 with their two children lives in Beemer.

"I had been president of the state bank at Beemer for twenty years," the police quoted Wupper as saying. "I got into trouble through back loans, frozen paper and lack of cash reserve."

Leaves With $35.
"I left Beemer with a bank examiner and the secretary of the state banking department for Omaha to try and raise money to straighten things out. Then I saw an article in the paper that the bank was closed, so I came to Philadelphia. At that time I had only $35 in my pockets."

EDWARD C. GOERKE

Was Cashier of the State Bank at Papillion, Nebraska, and while acting as such falsified bank records and forged various notes.

Is charged with forging a note for $3000.00 and H. E. Olderog, Sheriff of Sarpy County, Papillion, Nebraska, holds warrant charging him with above crime.

Arrest, hold and notify at our expense, either—

and Nelson, J. D. Dunn, Manitou Honey Co.

This offender advertised in country papers honey and strawberries for sale and failed to forward same to purchasers. Also advertised poultry for sale and failed to forward same. Issued "No Fund" checks as refunds when pressed for deliveries during the course of operation of the schemes. He sometimes uses post office boxes as his address when operating and has used stores in the vicinity of his employment.

He frequently obtains employment in hospitals and represents to nurses or other women that he is a man of means, proposes marriage and makes gifts of automobiles and other costly articles to them, using the funds received from his advertising schemes to pay for the gifts and support them. He lives in cheap, obscure rooming houses when not in hospital quarters and usually has nothing but a suitcase and a few changes of clothes with him.

While under four year probation from sentence July 15, 1929, for obtaining money for poultry advertised for sale but not furnished, he again made sales of poultry through advertising in country papers during 1931 under the name of J. D. Dunn, Box 611 Station C, Los Angeles, and failed to deliver any goods. Also again issued "No Fund" checks as refunds to some of the purchasers. On November 2, 1931, he was arrested for violation of probation and while held in Los Angeles County Jail for the U. S. Marshal, he feigned insanity and was committed to the State Hospital at Norwalk, Calif., where a "Hold" was placed against him, but on February 29, 1932, he escaped and has not been apprehended. $250 REWARD!

State of Georgia

County of Fulton

City of Atlanta

The accompanying picture shows Madame Wayne, alias Mrs. W. B. Brenton, alias Mrs. Harrison, and her husband, W. B. Brenton, alias etc.; her sister, Madame Louise Warden and her husband (a Jew), James Warden.

These parties established a fortune teller's business on Marietta Street, just within the corporate limits of Atlanta, during the month of January, 1933. Madame Wayne was the fortune teller assisted by her sister, Madame Louise. The husbands were recipients of their wives' bounty. The old mother and father (between 75 and 80 years of age) lived near the fortune teller's establishment and were supported by them. Each "Madame" had a number of children. The description of all of these parties follow:

MADAME WAYNE, alias MRS. W. B. BRENTON, alias HARRISON: Hair gray and worn plain with knot on back of head. Eyes close set and small, a bluish gray. Skin fair, teeth jagged and front ones having a plaque of gold to hold them together. Unusually large hands, very thick and long fingered. Nose rather long with narrow bridge. Very confident and peremptory bearing. Always stylishly dressed and very neat, wearing high-heeled shoes. Figure stout, tall and tightly corseted. Speech rapid and husky as though bronchial affection. Curious Welch pronunciation giving a queer sound to many words. Age 43 years. One dress of dark blue twill material embroidered in white. Also a yellow mus-white tailored suit she had just bought. Hats worn at a jaunty angle tipped on the side with just enough brim to shade the face becomingly. Weight 165 to 175 lbs., and height about five feet six. Real name was supposed to have been Mrs. W. B. Brenton.

MADAME LOUISE (WARDEN), SISTER OF MADAME WAYNE: Robust, tall and rather fat of a blonde type. Large hazel eyes and hair of same shade, worn long and having a tumble down look. Great knot worn to side of head without any waving. Quite tall and short waisted, wearing sport clothes and liking vivid colors. Face an oval shape and using heavy make-up. The same long type nose as her sister. Always well dressed, making a specialty of high-heeled shoes. Weight nearly 180 lbs., being both tall and heavy set. Age about 35 years. Height about 5 feet 7.

JAMES WARDEN (HUSBAND OF LOUISE WARDEN): A low, rather small man of decidedly Jewish cast. Dark brown eyes and cauliflower left ear, several gold teeth. Manner exceedingly polite amounting to humility. Nose somewhat aquiline. Has Elk's ring.

W. B. BRENTON (HUSBAND OF MADAME WAYNE): A florid heavy set gray haired man, beetling eyebrows and rather forbidding countenance. Very stout, not far from 200 lbs. Wearing Elk's teeth as fob. Headquarters Chicago.

CHILDREN OF MADAME WAYNE

Madame Wayne, alias Mrs. W. B. Brenton, had six children, chubby little boy and girl around 10 and 11 years.

Young girl 18, typical Irish type, having black hair and blue eyes, robust. Recently married.

Son about 17, strikingly like his mother. Small blue eyes and full face. Medium height.

Baby about one year and a half, having an anemic condition from lack of red blood.

Mother and father, both stocky build and of Welch descent. Mother very stout between 70 and 75, and father between 75 and 80.

WARDEN CHILDREN

Two of the Warden children very plump and of the same pretty oval face as their mother. One having large and very beautiful Italian eyes. The other a blonde type with blue eyes. The third and eldest girl a thin unhealthy anemic child, the manner most matured and a bright mind.

Madame Wayne advertised extensively in the newspapers in Atlanta. From 50 to 75 people flocked to her establishment each day. The climax was reached on the night of May 1, 1933, when various parties were fleeced and robbed of various amounts of United States currency. Madame Wayne and Madame Louise used the old flim-flam game by substituting bogus and worthless newspaper for real money. They are both under indictment for larceny in Fulton Superior Court. Madame Wayne and Madame Louise were supposed to be of Welch descent; the husbands of Jewish and Irish descent. They had four automobiles, a brand new Pierce-Arrow (black), a large sedan; a brand new Packard (blue), a very large sedan; a Nash roadster, and a Chevrolet sedan.

Sooner or later this crowd will re-establish themselves in some location in the United States. As they are common flim-flammers and fleecers they should be located, either working in conjunction with other fortune tellers, or separately.

Representing only one victim, I can only offer personally a reward of $250.00 for the apprehension and delivery of Madame Wayne, etc., to the Chief of Police, City of Atlanta, or Sheriff of Fulton County, Georgia. We most respectfully urge the arrest of all four of these parties.

If apprehended, please notify Chief of Police, City of Atlanta, Sheriff of Fulton County, Georgia, or the undersigned.
